James Robison —1969

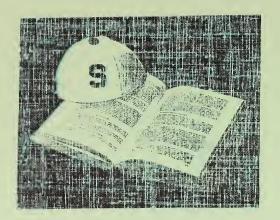

For years I never knew - whether the twilight was the ending of the day or the beginning of the night - and then - suddenly one day I understood - that this did not matter at all - for time is but a circle - and so there is no beginning and no ending - and this is how I came to know that birth and death are one - and it is neither the coming or the going that is of consequence - what is of consequence is the beauty that one gathers in this interlude called life -

WINSTON ABBOTT

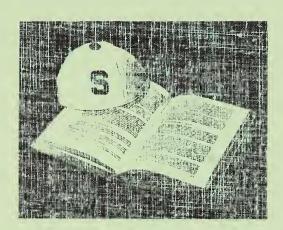

Do you remember a single blossom that defied the front - to tell you that tomorrow will be even more beautiful than today - if you remember this and this alone - you have no reason to fear this great mystery that is life - for you hold its secret deep within your heart.

WINSTON ABBOTT

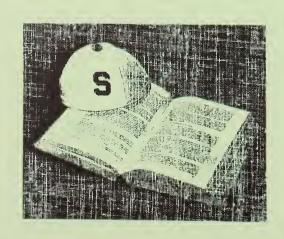

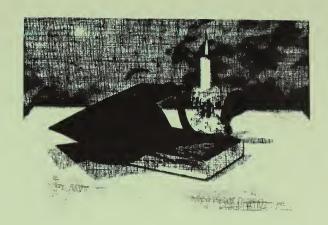

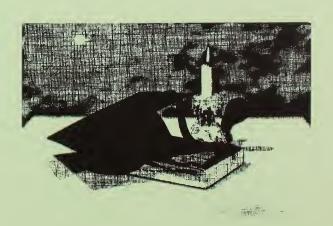

The dream had been early realized, and realization carried with it a certain bonus and a certain burden.

FITZGERALD

UNDERCLASSMEN

As you are woman so be lovely As you are lovely so be various Various so be constant.

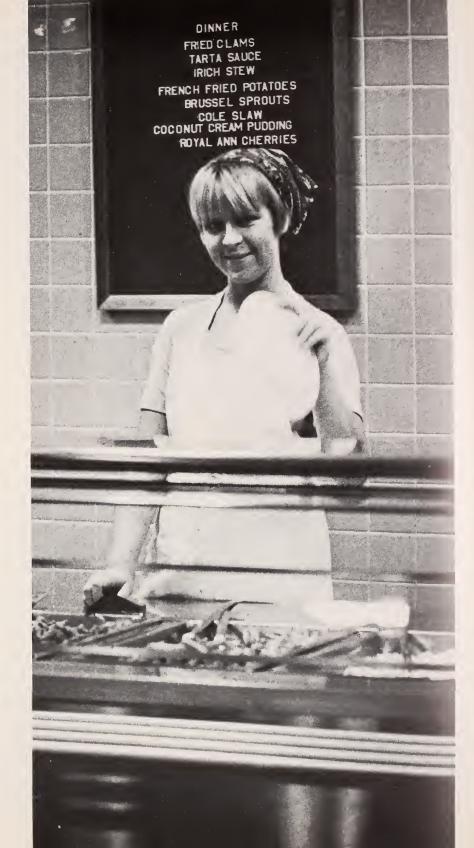

A University is according to the designation an Alma Mater, knowing her children, one by one, not a foundry or a mint, or a treadmill.

JOHN HENRY NEWMAN

Silence is deep as eternity, speech is shallow as time.

NEWPORT

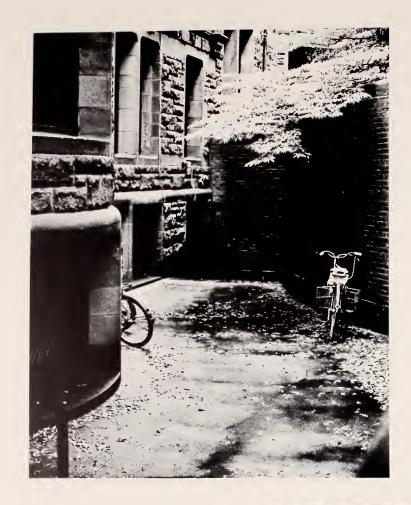

There is a certain glory attends on water by night.

By it the heavens are related to the earth, undistinguishable from a sky beneath you.

THOREAU

Never less alone than when alone.

SAMUEL ROGERS

You and I need to listen to the deep silence of the woods
- to breathe deeply of the solitude upon the mountains - to share the energy of throbbing wings - and someday you and I will come to understand - that we too shall find our strength where we shall seek it -
